Case No. MET-SC-2025-007
(Non-Interference & Land/People Protective Judgment)

SUPPLEMENTAL DECLARATORY ENFORCEMENT ORDER

Re: Social Security Administration – Disability Trust Jurisdiction

This instrument is issued as a Supplemental Declaratory Enforcement Order to Case No. MET-SC-2025-007 (Final Non-Interference Judgment & Protective Order). It is expressly incorporated into Case No. 007 and carries the same binding force as the Final Judgment therein.

It applies specifically to the Social Security Administration – Disability Determination Services (Central Valley Branch) and its agents.

I. Findings of Fact and Jurisdiction

1. Treaty Authority – The Mathias El Tribe Supreme Court derives continuing jurisdiction from the Treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek (1830, Art. 14), binding under U.S. Const. art. VI, cl. 2 (Supremacy Clause). This treaty guarantees continuity of tribal self-governance and prohibits alienation of rights without express consent.
2. Federal Trust Responsibility – The United States has a fiduciary duty to tribes and their members, requiring loyalty, prudence, and good faith. This duty was established in Cherokee Nation v. Georgia, 30 U.S. 1 (1831), reaffirmed in Seminole Nation v. United States, 316 U.S. 286 (1942), and applies to all agencies, including SSA, in their administration of benefits and trust programs.
3. Statutory Self-Governance – The Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act (25 U.S.C. §§ 5301–5304) affirms that tribes retain original sovereign authority over health and benefit services provided to their citizens. Nothing in the Act diminishes tribal jurisdiction or the federal trust responsibility.
4. Health Authority – Under the Indian Health Care Improvement Act (25 U.S.C. § 1645), the United States must accept health services and referrals from Indian tribes and tribal organizations as meeting federal program requirements. Consequently, medical findings from the Mathias El Tribe Medical Center are binding federal records.
5. SSA's Own Rules – SSA regulations (20 C.F.R. § 404.1502) require recognition of medical evidence from a "treating source." The Mathias El Tribe Medical Center qualifies as such under both federal law and SSA policy. SSA's POMS SI 00502.105 explicitly recognizes tribal programs and tribal entities as valid sources for eligibility determinations, including medical necessity, income, and resources.
6. SSA is further bound under 42 U.S.C. § 423(d)(5)(B) to give controlling weight to the medical evidence and determinations of treating sources. The Mathias El Tribe Medical Center, as the designated treating source, therefore issues binding findings which SSA must adopt in processing
7. Disability Insurance claims.
8. Confidentiality and Protection – All medical and trust-related information is shielded under 42 U.S.C. § 1306 (SSA confidentiality), HIPAA (45 C.F.R. § 164.502), and this Court's protective jurisdiction (Case

No. 007). Unauthorized use, disclosure, or alteration of tribal medical records constitutes a breach of federal law and treaty obligation.

9. Full Faith and Credit – Under 25 U.S.C. § 1911(d) (ICWA), 18 U.S.C. § 2265 (VAWA), and 28 U.S.C. § 1738, tribal court judgments are entitled to full faith and credit across all U.S. jurisdictions. This Court’s protective orders and disability-related determinations therefore bind SSA, EDD, county agencies, and any external subdivision.
10. Continuity of Jurisdiction – The protective jurisdiction affirmed in Case No. MET-SC-2025-007 establishes a continuing judicial framework within which all supplemental orders, including the present enforcement order, are incorporated and binding upon external entities.

Orders of this Court are entitled to full faith and credit and binding recognition under federal law.

II. Recognition of Trust Relationship

The Social Security system operates as a federally administered trust fund (OASDI). As such, the SSA functions in a trustee role with enforceable fiduciary duties of loyalty, prudence, and accountability to all beneficiaries, including tribal citizens.

II-A. Tribal Birthright Citizenship and Fiduciary Limits

The Court DECLARES that the citizens of the Mathias El Tribe derive their political status from treaty birthright citizenship under the Treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, 1830 (Art. 14), as confirmed by the Supremacy Clause of the United States Constitution, Art. VI, cl. 2. Such status is independent of the Fourteenth Amendment’s statutory definition of U.S. citizenship and cannot be diminished or denied by administrative construction.

Accordingly:

1. No Denial of Aid – There exists no federal law authorizing the denial of trust benefits, disability protections, or fiduciary aid to tribal citizens of the Mathias El Tribe by reason of non-U.S. citizenship status.
2. Void Ab Initio Consents – Any contractual agreements, consent forms, or delegations previously executed in error that purported to authorize SSA or its contractors to assume fiduciary responsibility or act in the “best interest” of the undersigned are hereby declared void ab initio.
3. Breach of Fiduciary Duty – Denying benefits to a lawful tribal beneficiary constitutes a breach of trust, alienation of treaty-protected rights, and unlawful subrogation of fiduciary authority.
4. Continuing Beneficiary Status – The undersigned, as a beneficiary of the OASDI Trust Fund, retains continuous entitlement to disability aid and protections. SSA is bound to administer such benefits in accordance with the trust responsibility, treaty authority, and federal fiduciary standards.

III-B. Government-to-Government Communications

The Mathias El Tribe is a self-governing sovereign with full authority over the health, benefits, and trust-related matters of its citizens. Accordingly, all communications concerning tribal citizens’ medical status, disability claims, or benefit determinations must be conducted on a government-to-government basis between the Social Security Administration (SSA), the California Employment Development Department (EDD), the Kern County Department of Human Services, or any external subdivision, and the Mathias El Tribe Supreme Court or the Mathias El Tribe Medical Center.

1. Exclusive Channel – SSA, EDD, Kern County, or their contractors may not seek direct consent, records, or determinations from individual tribal citizens without express authorization from this Court.
2. Recognized Findings – The Mathias El Tribe Medical Center, as a federally recognized health provider with NPI No. 1033976758, issues medical determinations that qualify as “treating source” evidence under 20 C.F.R. § 404.1502 and must be credited as prima facie proof of medical status or disability.
3. Federal Standard of Review – Under 42 U.S.C. § 423(d)(5)(B), determinations of disability must be supported by medical evidence from acceptable sources. Certified findings and records from the Mathias El Tribe Medical Center meet this requirement and are binding unless rebutted by equal or greater authority.
4. Prima Facie Evidence Rule – Tribal court orders, certified findings from tribal medical providers, and
5. trust documentation issued under this Court’s seal constitute prima facie evidence of medical status,

6. disability, or benefit entitlement within both tribal and federal administrative proceedings.
7. Binding Obligation – Any external attempt to bypass this sovereign channel constitutes unlawful circumvention of treaty authority, breach of federal fiduciary duty, and violation of protective jurisdiction in Case No. MET-SC-2025-007.

III. Medical Jurisdiction and Privacy Protections

- a. All medical determinations for tribal citizens shall originate solely from the Mathias El Tribe Medical Center.
- b. Such determinations are binding as “treating source” findings under 20 C.F.R. § 404.1502 and federally recognized under 25 U.S.C. § 1645 (IHCIA).
- c. All medical information is protected under:
 - Tribal Sovereign Protective Status (Case No. 007),
 - HIPAA (45 C.F.R. § 164.502),
 - 42 U.S.C. § 1306 (SSA confidentiality),
 - Applicable tribal privacy laws.

Expanded Enforcement Clause:

Any attempt by the Social Security Administration (SSA), the California Employment Development Department (EDD), the Kern County Department of Human Services, or any contractor, delegate, or affiliate acting under their direction to override, alter, or disregard determinations of the Mathias El Tribe Medical Center constitutes:

1. A violation of federal law, including 25 U.S.C. § 1645 (IHCIA), 42 U.S.C. § 1306 (SSA confidentiality), and 25 U.S.C. § 1911(d);
2. An infringement of treaty-protected rights under the Treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek (1830, Art. 14);
3. A breach of the Final Judgment in Case No. MET-SC-2025-007, subject to enforcement by this Court.

SSA’s own POMS SI 00502.105 further recognizes tribal programs and tribal entities as legitimate sources for eligibility determinations, including:

- Living arrangements,
- Medical necessity,
- Resource exclusions,
- Income determinations.

III-A. General Applicability to External Agencies

This Supplemental Order applies not only to the Social Security Administration and Kern County Department of Human Services, but also to any federal, state, county, municipal, or contracted facility, officer, or agent acting under the laws of the United States or any subdivision thereof, whenever such action would affect the rights, benefits, health, or trust protections of Mathias El Tribe citizens.

Accordingly:

1. Universal Applicability – Any attempt by an external jurisdiction to assert medical, fiduciary, inheritance, membership, or benefit authority over a tribal citizen without express tribal authorization is void ab initio.
2. Binding Effect – This Order is binding upon all external agencies under the Supremacy Clause, treaty authority, and federal full faith and credit statutes (25 U.S.C. § 1911(d); 18 U.S.C. § 2265; 28 U.S.C. § 1738; 25 U.S.C. § 177; 25 U.S.C. § 2206).
3. Notice Constructive and Continuing – Publication and service of this Order constitutes continuing and constructive notice to all external authorities, whether or not named individually herein.

IV. Declaratory Order

Accordingly, it is DECREED that:

1. SSA shall give full faith and credit to this Order under 25 U.S.C. § 1911(d), 18 U.S.C. § 2265, and 28 U.S.C. § 1738.

2. SSA must process the subject's Disability Insurance entitlement in accordance with federal fiduciary standards.
3. Any breach of these duties is subject to enforcement by this Court under Case No. 007.

V. Reservation of Rights

Nothing in this Supplemental Order waives tribal sovereign immunity or consents to suit. All rights and jurisdiction remain expressly reserved.

Case No. MET-SC-2025-007

(Non-Interference & Land/People Protective Judgment)

IN RE: Final Non-Interference Judgment & Protective Order

Pursuant to Treaty Authority, Tribal Constitution, International Law, and Sovereign Jurisdiction

SUPPLEMENTAL PROVISIONS

Issued under the inherent jurisdiction of the Mathias El Tribe Supreme Court, these supplemental provisions are self-executing within tribal law and further enforceable under binding federal law. They are declaratory, protective, and supplemental to the Final Non-Interference Judgment & Protective Order dated August 12, 2025, and apply specifically to the following violators and agencies:

Kern County Recorder, Kern County Assessor-Recorder, Vylla, Carrington, State Franchise Tax Board, Social Security Administration, and any subdivision or agent acting under their direction.

I. Public Law 280 Limitation Clause

28 U.S.C. § 1360(b).

No State, county, or subdivision—including but not limited to the Kern County Recorder, Assessor-Recorder, California Franchise Tax Board, and their agents—may tax, encumber, regulate, or otherwise assert jurisdiction over tribal lands, trust property, or internal affairs of the Mathias El Tribe. Any such attempt constitutes an ultra vires act and is void ab initio.

II. Religious Freedom Protection

42 U.S.C. § 2000bb (RFRA).

The ceremonial, spiritual, and observance practices of the Mathias El Tribe—including the Days of Remembrance (June 7–15) and all tribal sacred observances—are federally protected. Any burden placed upon these practices by external governments—including the SSA's administrative timelines, FTB enforcement deadlines, or county-level processes—must satisfy strict scrutiny. Any action failing this test is unlawful and unenforceable.

III. Federal Enforcement Duty

25 U.S.C. § 175.

The Attorney General of the United States has a non-discretionary duty to represent the Mathias El Tribe in the enforcement of rights, judgments, and protections under federal law. Notice under § 175 has been duly issued. Enforcement of this Judgment against the above-named violators is a continuing federal obligation.

IV. Independent Judicial Review

Loper Bright Enterprises v. Raimondo, 144 S. Ct. 2244 (2024).

Chevron deference is no longer controlling. Courts must independently interpret statutes governing tribal rights, sovereignty, and jurisdiction. No agency—including the SSA, FTB, Carrington, Vylla, or Kern County officials—may rely on administrative interpretations to diminish or override the Tribe's inherent sovereignty, treaty rights, or statutory protections.

V. Reservation of Sovereignty

Nothing in these Supplemental Provisions waives sovereign immunity, consents to suit, or diminishes the Final Judgment of Case No. MET-SC-2025-007. These provisions are declaratory reinforcements binding upon Kern County Recorder, Kern County Assessor-Recorder, Vylla, Carrington, State Franchise Tax Board, Social Security Administration, and all subdivisions or agents acting under their direction, under the Supremacy Clause, full faith and credit statutes, and federal trust responsibilities.

IT IS SO DECLARED.

Case No. MET-SC-2025-007

(Non-Interference & Land/People Protective Judgment)

IN RE: Final Non-Interference Judgment & Protective Order

Pursuant to Treaty Authority, Tribal Constitution, International Law, and Sovereign Jurisdiction

I. AUTHORITY AND JURISDICTION

This Court, as the highest judicial authority of the Mathias El Tribe, exercises full civil, protective, and land/people jurisdiction under:

- Mathias El Tribe Constitution and governing laws, including the Mathias El Tribal Code ("METC"), Title 4 Sovereignty, Jurisdiction, and Due Process Act ("SJDPA").
- Treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek (1830), binding under U.S. Const. art. VI, cl. 2.
- Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act (ISDEAA), 25 U.S.C. § 5304(e).
- Native American Housing Assistance and Self-Determination Act (NAHASDA), definition of federally recognized tribes, 25 U.S.C. § 4103(13)(B).
- Violence Against Women Act (VAWA), 18 U.S.C. § 2265; 25 U.S.C. § 1304.
- Indian Child Welfare Act (ICWA), 25 U.S.C. § 1911(d).
- Full Faith and Credit for Child Custody & Protection Orders, 28 U.S.C. §§ 1738B–1738C.
- United States v. Wheeler, 435 U.S. 313 (1978).
- Montana v. United States, 450 U.S. 544 (1981).
- National Farmers Union Ins. Cos. v. Crow Tribe, 471 U.S. 845 (1985).

II. FINDINGS

1. Inherent Sovereignty – The Mathias El Tribe possesses inherent, original, and perpetual sovereignty over its people, lands, and jurisdiction, not granted by any outside government.
2. Anti-Alienation Principle – Alienation of Tribal lands, rights, or jurisdiction is void ab initio. No non-Tribal claim to our land is lawful.
3. Federal Trust Duty – The United States bears the highest legal and moral obligation to protect against alienation and preserve tribal exclusivity.
4. Reservation of Rights – "Indian Reservation" means Reservation of Rights, incorporating 18 U.S.C. § 1151.

III. ORDERS

§ 1. Non-Interference

No person, agency, or government shall interfere with the jurisdiction, lands, titles, resources, members, or lawful acts of the Mathias El Tribe. In accordance with the Sovereignty, Jurisdiction, and Due Process Act, METC Title 4, Ch. 4-200 (Sovereignty Protections), § 4-201 (Inherent Anti-Alienation Right), any attempt at alienation — defined as the forced transfer of land, rights, or jurisdiction to a foreign power — is void ab initio, constitutes a breach of trust, and shall be rejected as unlawful under tribal, treaty, and constitutional law.

The Tribe's right to resist alienation is inherent, perpetual, and self-executing. All protective orders issued under this section are enforceable under 25 U.S.C. §§ 1911(d), 2265, and 28 U.S.C. §§ 1738B–1738C, and apply retroactively to remedy past acts of alienation, distress, or jurisdictional overreach.

§ 2. Enforcement and Recognition

All judgments and orders of the Mathias El Tribe Supreme Court are entitled to full faith and credit under:

- 25 U.S.C. §§ 1911(d), 2265;
- 28 U.S.C. §§ 1738B–1738C.

The Court may enforce this Order through:

- Contempt sanctions;
- Exclusion from tribal lands;
- Referral to federal authorities including:
 - U.S. District Courts under applicable jurisdiction statutes (e.g., 18 U.S.C. §§ 1152–1153; 25 U.S.C. §§ 1304, 1911(d), 2265);
 - U.S. Court of Federal Claims under 28 U.S.C. § 1505;
 - Any other federal forum with jurisdiction to enforce treaty, trust, or statutory obligations.

§ 3. Sovereign Immunity

Nothing herein waives sovereign immunity or consents to suit. No waiver may be implied. No officer, employee, or agent may waive sovereign immunity without express Tribal Council authorization.

§ 4. Retroactive Jurisdiction

The Mathias El Tribe Supreme Court asserts full jurisdiction to issue protective orders that apply retroactively to the date of violation, harm, or coercion. These orders are enforceable under tribal law and federal full faith and credit provisions, and shall remedy all past acts of alienation, distress, or jurisdictional overreach. This retroactive application extends to February 22, 2024, pursuant to METC Title 4, § 4-107 (Effective Date of Orders).

IV. PROTECTIVE SCOPE AND FULL FAITH & CREDIT

This Judgment protects:

- The Chief Justice of the Mathias El Tribe,
- All governmental officers, employees, and instrumentalities,
- Women, children, elders, and other protected persons under Tribal law.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 2265(e) and 25 U.S.C. § 1911(d), this Order shall be given full faith and credit by all jurisdictions in the United States, without the need for registration or additional process. The violations and breaches giving rise to this Judgment are continuous and ongoing; therefore, the protective scope of this Order applies retroactively to the date of the initial violation, harm, or coercion, and shall remain in force until expressly dissolved by this Court. This retroactive application is further grounded in the Sovereignty, Mathias El Tribal Code (“METC”), Title 4 — Sovereignty, Jurisdiction, and Due Process Act Title 4, § 4-201 (Inherent Anti-Alienation Right), which declares any unauthorized interference with Tribal lands, rights, or jurisdiction to be void ab initio and subject to immediate remedy.

V. NOTICE TO RESPONDENTS AND SERVICE PROTOCOL

Pursuant to the Sovereignty, Jurisdiction, and Due Process Act, METC Title 4, and in alignment with federal due process standards, the Mathias El Tribe Supreme Court hereby establishes the following notification and service protocol for all parties subject to this Judgment:

§ 1. Notice of Judgment

All persons, agencies, or governments subject to this Protective Judgment shall be notified through one or more of the following lawful methods:

- Official Tribal Publication: Posting on the Mathias El Tribe’s official website and/or gazette.
- Certified Mail or Courier: Delivery of the Judgment and Protective Order to the last known address of the respondent or agency.
- Electronic Service: Email or secure transmission to known agency contacts or legal representatives.
- Public Notice: Publication in a newspaper of general circulation within Kern County, California, and/or relevant federal district.

§ 2. Timing of Notification

Notification shall occur within seven (7) calendar days of the issuance of this Judgment. The date of issuance shall be deemed the effective date for protective enforcement, regardless of respondent receipt, pursuant to METC Title 4, § 4-107 (Effective Date of Orders).

§ 3. Opportunity to Respond

Respondents shall have fourteen (14) calendar days from the date of service to submit a written response or request a hearing before the Mathias El Tribe Supreme Court. Failure to respond shall constitute waiver of objection and acceptance of the Court’s jurisdiction and findings.

§ 4. Continuing Notice

This Judgment shall remain publicly posted and enforceable until expressly dissolved by this Court. Any future respondent or agency engaging in interference, alienation, or coercion shall be deemed constructively notified by the ongoing publication and enforcement of this Order.
